The last festival observance of the Jewish Passover among local Hebrews was held at the home of M. Gottler of Seminary street Wednesday night, the occasion being the feast of Bar Mitzve, celebrated this year in honor of the young son of Mr. Gottler, who has reached the age of thirteen, when all Hebrew boys are confirmed. A number of persons from Montpelier were present at the ceremony. The Passover ended last night at sundown.

The records for large crowds at the inter-fraternity fair in progress each evening this week at Howland hall was maintained last night. The program contained in addition to a violin solo by James Riley and a waltz song by Miss Sturtevant of the seminary, three meritorious offerings from students at Goddard. Leon Titus with a reading, Miss Lambertson with a piano solo and Fred Pitkin with a humorous sketch showed that their training at the school on the hill has not been without results. Each number was greeted with hearty applause at its finish. Dancing followed until 12 o'clock. The affair to-night will be in charge of the Knights of Columbus. The participants in the entertainment have been preparing for the occasion under the direction of the Sisters of Sacred Heart, something unusual in the way of programs is promised. Following are some of the numbers: "The Cavalry Parade," march; song: "The Telephone Message"; violin solo; song: "Tenting To-night"; song: "The Whistling Schoolboys"; plantation melodies, piano and violin. Only a small admission fee is charged for the entertainment.

New Things in Dress Goods

Kinds that are being used by the very best tailors—these are cloths that are coming in our Ready-to-wear Suits and Coats, cloths that are new this year and a little different from last season's styles.

The following will give you an idea as to their kinds, an examination will give you a better idea as to their value. You can very quickly decide whether our prices are right.

Yard goods are the best for several seasons. All-wool goods are very cheap, prices broke the first of the season so that you can now make what is call a satisfactory purchase.

Dress Goods

This is Dress Goods week with us. We have our window full of desirable kinds, the kind that are just now selling best.

Shepherd Plaids are very good for both suits and coats. These come at 25c, 35c and $1.00 per yard in black and white, also a brown check, all wool at $1.00. Our special is the 42-inch black and white Shepherd Plaid at 65c per yard.

White Serges come next, these a little later will be so very good that several grades will be hard to get, this will apply more particularly to the weight used for Misses and Ladies' coats.

Fifty-four inch Colored Outings for separate skirts, are in good demand. Our best seller is $1.50 and the width being so wide that it don't take but a small pattern.

Navy Blue Serge with a hair line of white in a heavy weight makes a pretty coat.

We have a limited quantity of Navy and Black, 54-inch Serge, all sponged and shrunk, ready to make up at $1.25 per yard.

Dress Goods

With our Dress Goods this season we have Silks in Persian and plain to match nearly all colors and a beautiful line of Trimmings to match these Silks.

Where we have had one piece in seasons past, we have now a half-dozen pieces to match the same color.

Our idea of the Dress Goods business is to have what the trade want to buy, not what we always would like to sell.

Dress Goods without Trimmings always leave the customer in a bad place. We can help you out this time. If you do not buy your Dress Goods of us we will be just as pleased to sell you your Trimmings.

We have two specials that we want you to see. One is a 42-inch Wool Taffeta at $1.00, in black, smoke, dark red, myrtle green, navy and old rose. A beautiful cloth, nothing better, $1.25. The other is a Granite Cloth in navy, dark red, old rose, cadet and reseda, a dollar cloth for 69c per yard.
